Abstract

Globalization and the increasing knowledge intensity of economic activity are leading world trends. They are advancing trade liberalization at both the global and regional levels, while weakening the ability of national governments to intervene in economic affairs. Meanwhile, the role of regional and urban economies is growing in importance. Hence, cities have to contend with global competition and its challenges. Toward this end, it is essential that cities develop their core strengths and distinctive features, thereby enhancing their ability to compete. This is part of the process that is known as “glocalism.”

The main purpose of this paper is to investigate the establishment of a mechanism for assessing the competitiveness of cities, one that can systematically provide cities with information on competitiveness. We begin by clarifying the concept of city competitiveness. Next, we analyze the key determinants of city competitiveness, as well as the structure of indexes for its assessment, by reviewing related domestic and foreign documents and studies. In the concluding section, we design a structure of indexes to assess the competitiveness of cities and counties in Taiwan. The establishment of a mechanism to assess local competitiveness will provide a valuable reference tool for local and central governments in formulating development policies.

然而20世紀後半以來，「全球化」與「知識化」成為國際經濟的兩大發展趨勢，影響所及，區域經濟與城市經濟的重要性與日俱增。其中，全球化經濟主要是跨國公司運用資本、信息技術、人力、管理等生產因素，以跨國境快速流通與整合分工方式，並依循比較利益法則，使生產要素發揮最高生產力。同時，國家與國家間基於經貿利益考量，簽定區域性雙邊或多邊自由貿易協定，如NAFTA(北美自由貿易協定)、EU(歐盟)等，消除自由貿易區內關稅與非關稅障礙，區域內部貿易量迅速增長；經濟全球化與區域化發展，促使國家疆界的經濟意義益形模糊，次區域經濟合作體與城市經濟趁勢崛起，城市成為經濟增長的發動機與財富資本累積的場所。

另一項主要的經濟發展趨勢為「知識化經濟」，以資訊、網路與生物技術為主要特徵的創新與知識累積應用，成為近代經濟增長與生產力持續提升的主要原動力；依據OECD估計，1970至1995年間已開發國家的產出增長中，過半數是來自於創新活動。知識化與全球化的緊密結合已大幅改變傳統經濟發展型態，通信資訊科技進步(特別是網路)使資訊的傳播速度一日千里，城市與城市之間相對距離

縮短，偏遠地區也有機會直接參與全球市場競爭，城市之間既有跨國的功能性合作連結，更有激烈的人才、資本與市場爭奪，因此城市要成功融入全球經濟分工體系，必須掌握自身競爭的絕對與相對優勢，採取前瞻的定位與發展策略規劃，建立城市的核心特長，發展知識產業，提升城市綜合競爭力，也就是「全球在地化」(glocalism)。Knight(1989)指出：「全球性的諸多力量正影響著都市的發展和變化，所有都市均須參照不斷擴大的全球社會，重新界定自己的角色。世界都市不再取決於其地理位置或地理條件，而取決於它們能否適應變化，能否在動盪的環境中保持延續性與秩序。」

為了解城市之間的相對競爭優劣勢，以確立自身的城市定位與發展策略，城市競爭力的評量分析極為必要，惟因目前國際間對城市競爭力評比，尚未如國家競爭力一般，建立國際公認的評比指標體系及操作方法；亦無持續性的評比結果發布。因此，本文旨在透過相關文獻資料的蒐集分析，首先探討城市競爭力的本質與內涵；次就目前國內外機構提出的評比指標架構進行比較分析，歸納影響城市競爭力的關鍵要素；並嘗試提出我國地方競爭力評比機制架構，以及對於中央及地方政府之相關政策建議。

一、城市競爭力的定義

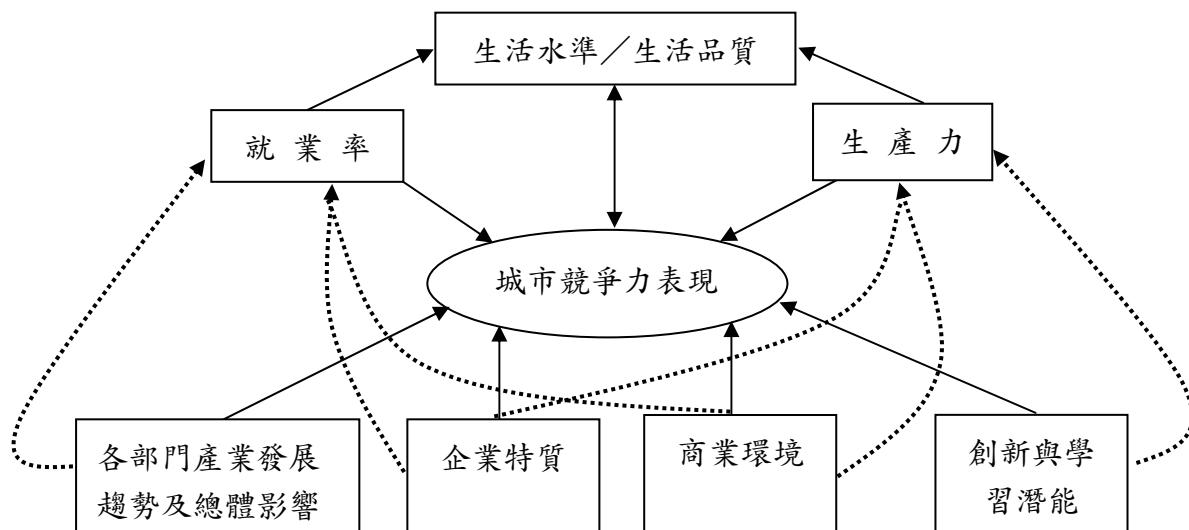

競爭力 (Competitiveness) 的核心概念是透過競爭優勢的建立，在競爭中取得有利的地位；其研究對象可以是國家、區域、個別產業或廠商。為進一步了解競爭力的核心本質，茲將學者及研究機構提出的相關論述表列如下：

提出者	競爭力的定義
Michael E. Porter (Harvard Business School)	「競爭利基的鑽石模型」：一國的特定產業能否在國際競爭中取勝，取決於四個要素，包括：生產要素、市場需求、相關及支援性產業、企業策略與產業結構等四項決定要件；此外，機運及政府干預也扮演著相當重要的角色，這六大要素息息相關，且互為因果。
OECD(Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development) , 1997	競爭力是一個國家在公平自由的市場條件下，能有效生產符合國際市場所需的財貨與服務，長期間並具備維持、擴大國民實質所得的能力。
倪鵬飛（中國社會科學院財貿經濟研究所）	城市競爭力係指一個城市在競爭和發展過程中，與其他城市相比較，所具有的吸引、爭奪、擁有、控制和轉化資源，爭奪、占領和控制市場，以創造價值，為其居民提供福利的能力。 ¹
IMD (International Institute for Management and Development)	國家競爭力係指一國在世界市場上創造附加價值並增加國家財富的能力。以此為基礎，IMD採用四大構面評核國家競爭力，包括：經濟表現、政府效能、企業效率、基礎建設。 競爭力提升的最終目的：(1)使全體人民享有優質的生活品質；(2)使全體社會能夠提供具有吸引力的大環境；(3)使國家在國際上擁有生存的尊嚴與發展的願景。
WEF (World Economic Forum)	國家競爭力為一國能夠達成持續高經濟成長的能力。
US Competitiveness Policy Council, 1992	競爭力係指一國生產的財貨勞務，能夠通過國際市場的試鍊，人民可享有長期、永續的生活品質。

資料來源：IMD網站資料：Competitiveness of Nations: the Fundamentals(2004)整理。

建立城市競爭力衡量指標的目的，係將城市競爭力複雜而模糊的面向，以客觀量化的指標，加以系統性的區隔分割，並透過統計科學方法加以整合分析，建立城市之間可相互比較的量化基準。競爭力的評量，通常可採事前觀點及事後結果兩種分析方式，依本文對城市競爭力的定義，城市競爭力評量側重在城市因應競爭的能力，而非城市競爭的實際表現結果，因此以下討論競爭力衡量指標，主要從影響城市競爭力的組成要素切入。然而有部分指標具有雙重特性，既是城市競爭力的決定性影響要素，同時也隱含競爭的表現或結果，難以明確劃分，如城市每人平均GDP的成長，既是城市競

爭的結果，代表較佳的經濟競爭表現及居民享有較高的生活水準；同時居民所得增加，也將透過消費增加帶動相關投資生產與服務業的成長，具有進一步提高城市經濟擴張與競爭潛力的作用。正由於城市競爭力如此複雜而多面向的特性，如以單一指標衡量將造成偏差，無法全面關照，因此必須針對主要影響因素界定相關指標群綜合評量，才能有效呈現城市競爭的真正本質。

城市競爭的內涵，不僅表現在所得水準提升、就業機會與財富創造等數量性的增加，同時更需考量居民福利、生活品質等質的增進，例如就業結構應考量是否朝高技術性工作調整、所得增加必須同時考量是否分配更趨平均，生產力提高應同時考量產品生產外部成本(環境污染等)的減低等，以確保城市持續保有高度競爭力，達成永續成長，因此，衡量指標的選定，必須同時包含質性與量性的指標。

一、國內外城市競爭力評比相關研究簡介

由於目前國內外對於城市(或地區)競爭力評比的相關研究或調查有限，尚無國際公認的評比標準及操作程序，本文蒐集相關國內外機構、專家學者之城市(或地區)競爭力評估研究結果，摘要如下：

(一)世界經濟論壇(WEF) — 世界城市競爭力排名(2004)²

世界經濟論壇首席經濟學家Claros博士，於2004年10月31日出席第16屆上海市市長國際企業家諮詢會議時，提出WEF首次嘗試辦理的「世界城市競爭力排名」調查報告。該報告係以全球53個重要城市進行評比，資料來源為對於各該城市三萬名企業高階經理人進行的國家競爭力問卷資料，以proxy作法編製國家競爭力的分類，提出

² 摘自中央社・北京訊「全球城市競爭力排名台北超越上海北京」一文，11/1/2004.

排名前五大城市，分別為新加坡、香港、奧斯陸、赫爾辛基、哥本哈根。由於該研究尚屬於第一年的實驗試辦計畫，WEF並未正式上網公布相關資料。

相關指標來源為國家競爭力指標，但略有改變，主要分為：1. 科技指標，包括：創新、技術移轉、資訊技術細項指標；2. 宏觀經濟環境指標，包括：宏觀經濟穩定性、國家信譽度等級、政府浪費等細項指標；3. 公共部門質量指標，包括：合約與法規、腐敗等細項指標。

(二)美國財星雜誌(FORTUNE)—最佳商業城市評比(2000)³

2000年，財星雜誌進行全美最佳商業城市調查，得出五大商業現況最發達且發展前景最佳城市，該項調查採用的統計指標包括城市整體商業環境(包括：新商業成長、產業多樣化、財星五百大企業總部之設立數等細項指標)、商業經營成本(包括：租稅與財政政策、商區不動產價格細項指標)、地方勞動力水準(包括：教育水準、管理經驗細項指標)、生活品質(包括：住宅、就學、通勤細項指標)等四大項，資料來源包括統計數據，以及徵詢全球1,700名企業高階經理人意見，得出美國前五大最佳商業城市，依序為：紐約市、舊金山、芝加哥、華盛頓特區、聖荷西。

此外，財星雜誌亦針對全球85個城市，以勞動力、商業環境、吸引人才的生活品質、商業經營成本等四個分項進行評選，分別得出歐洲、亞洲及拉丁美洲的前5名城市，分別由倫敦、香港、布宜諾斯艾利斯拔得頭籌。該評比亦發現前15名城市排名與網路連結程度

³ 摘自“The Best Cities for Business ,” FORTUNE, vol.142, no. 12, pp.106-113.

的排名重疊性極高，隱含城市的通訊、基礎設施、法規管理能力及知識水準，對當地企業經營的影響甚鉅。

(三)歐洲都市事務學會(European Institute for Urban Affairs) — 「競爭的歐洲城市：核心城市定位何處？」報告(2004)⁴

本研究係由英國副首相辦公室委託辦理，研究結果認為影響歐洲城市競爭的六大決定要素為：1. 公司與組織的創新活力，2. 技術性勞動力，3. 內部與外部網絡連結，4. 策略性決策與執行能力，5. 經濟多樣性，6. 生活品質，其中以創新為高競爭力城市的最重要特質，至於生活品質(包括社會、文化、環境)雖非最重要決定因素，但對於人才吸引的作用日趨重要。

EIUA依據上開影響因素選定八大類指標，運用相關統計資料評量歐洲23個城市(包括15個歐陸主要城市及8個英國核心城市)之相對競爭力，該八大類指標包括：1. 平均每人GDP、2. 區域生產力(實質GDP/工作年齡人口)、3. 創新(European Innovation Scoreboard 評比結果)、4. 社會組成(人口變動率、扶養比率)、5. 就業結構(就業率、知識密集產業就業人口比率、高技術製造業及服務業部門就業人口比率)、6. 人力資本(工作年齡人口教育程度)、7. 失業(失業率)、8. 國際網絡連結(國際機場旅客人次、跨國網際網路頻寬)等。

此外，該研究並針對500餘位商務及私人投資者，進行為期十餘年的調查，得出歐洲最佳30個商業城市排名，結果發現與上開統計指標得出的評比結果非常近似，其中具有最高GDP、創新、技術性勞動力及外部連結較佳的城市，常成為商業投資地點首選，其中，

倫敦、巴黎、法蘭克福、布魯塞爾、阿姆斯特丹連續12年高居前五名；其次則以首都型城市較具商業吸引力，而英國的8個核心城市相對經濟競爭力則明顯落後，僅曼徹斯特入榜。

(四)中國社會科學院—中國城市競爭力與基礎設施關係的實證研究 (2002)⁵

本研究由中國社會科學院倪鵬飛博士與相關學者專家聯合參與，該報告認為城市競爭力係硬體及軟體競爭力綜合作用的結果，其中：

硬分力=人才競爭力+資本競爭力+科技競爭力+架構競爭力+基礎設施競爭力+區位競爭力+環境競爭力+聚集力

軟分力=秩序競爭力+文化競爭力+制度競爭力+管理競爭力+開放競爭力

該研究將城市綜合競爭力指標體系以市場占有率(企業競爭力的直接表現)、GDP成長率(反映城市價值擴展速度及潛力)、勞動生產率(城市生產力水準的綜合反映)、居民人均收入(反映城市對外吸引與控制能力)等四個表現要素作為關鍵性指標，算出24個中國城市的都市綜合競爭力排名，前三名依序為上海、深圳、廣州。

次就上開13個影響城市競爭分力(硬分力有8項分力，軟分力有5項分力)，個別計算其對於綜合競爭力的貢獻彈性係數，前三高依次為資本力、文化力、設施力，顯示中國大陸的城市競爭，主要仍停留在物質水平與生產條件的競爭層次，與其總體發展階段有關；至於各分力之相關程度，以設施力與資本力、科技力、勞動力的相關

⁵ 摘自倪鵬飛(2002)，「中國城市競爭力與基礎設施關係的實證研究」，中國工業經濟，第5期。

性較強，顯示城市基礎設施透過這些分力對城市競爭產生重要的間接影響。

(五)天下雜誌—25縣市競爭排行榜(2003)⁶

天下雜誌針對我國25縣市進行競爭力評比，將縣市競爭力衡量分成四大面向：1.經濟競爭指標(包括：可支配所得、失業率、工廠登記數等細項指標)；2.政府效能指標(包括：年度平均每人歲出、年度歲出自有財源比率、黑金問題、縣市長施政滿意度等細項指標)；3.生活品質指標(包括：人均居住面積、污水下水道普及率、自殺率、托兒所數等細項指標)；4.社會活力指標(包括：65歲以上人口比率、扶養比率、淨移入等細項指標)，共計約60個細項指標進行評比。資料來源包括政府統計資料及問卷調查二類，分別得出四大面向之縣市競爭力排名及綜合競爭力排名，其中綜合競爭力之前三名依序為：台北市、新竹縣、台中市；另由排名前十名與後十名的縣市分布狀況，反映出南部與北部地區的發展差距。

(六)財團法人國家政策研究基金會—台灣地區地方競爭力評估指標建構之初探(2002)

該研究將地區競爭力定義為：地區依其特有發展條件充分開發以發揮地區競爭優勢，提升經濟成長與社會福祉，進而達成提高生活品質與創造永續發展環境之最終目的。因此，非經濟面的生活品質要素與永續發展環境要素，為地區競爭優勢及地區競爭力提升的關鍵。相關評估指標體系即以生活品質要素及永續發展環境要素指標群所構成，分為六個構面：1. 社會安全、2. 社會福利、3. 醫療保

⁶ 摘自吳迎春(2003)，「與世界接軌—地方競爭力崛起」，天下雜誌，第280期。

健、4.教育文化、5.環境保護、6.政府行政，共計72項指標(包括次級統計指標資料60項、調查資料12項)。

該報告依據上開評估指標體系，以台灣地區23縣市88年各項指標資料，進行競爭力評量與比較分析，採集群分析方法，將23縣市分為三集群，包括：競爭力領先群體(僅台北市)、經濟開發中群體(台灣西海岸、工商業發展中之縣市)、未污染開發群體(台灣東海岸縣市及西部傳統農業發展縣市)。研究結果發現：隨經濟活動發展、競爭力的提升，社會福利、醫療資源及教育文化表現越佳；社會安全、環境保護及政府行政表現則越差，顯示縣市為全面提升競爭力基礎，除強調促進經濟發展、區域均衡外，亦須注重社會結構改變、人口移入所產生的社會安全及環保問題。⁷

綜合比較分析國內外機構提出的城市(或區域)競爭力評比相關研究，發現在城市(或區域)競爭力的內涵及相關評量指標選項方面具有以下的差異性：

國外研究對於城市競爭力的衡量，比較強調經濟競爭力，主要著眼於全球(或區域性)競爭，考量城市生產力提升、高附加價值產品創造所涉及的相關影響要素。因此，設定的競爭力衡量指標，特別側重產業的知識化程度、研發創新、教育及人力素質，以及交通資訊等基礎建設的國際化連結程度等，有關生活環境(包括社會安全)方面的指標權重較小，認為其作用主要在人才吸引，部分研究甚至認為城市生活品質屬於較次要的影響因子。然而以「全球在地化」的城鄉發展趨勢觀之，資金、技術、人力等生產要素均具高度自由

⁷ 摘自韋端(2002)，「台灣地區地方競爭力評估指標建構之初探」，國政研究報告，財團法人國家政策研究基金會編印。

流動性，惟獨基礎設施與生活環境具有不可移動與不可替代性，城市獨特的人文社會、自然文化與寧適的生活環境所交織形成的城市風格，為提升城市活力、吸引投資與人才進駐，以及維持城市永續發展的要項，應作為競爭力評量的重要一環。

反觀我國對於地方競爭力的評量多偏向生活環境、社會福利、社會安全、政府施政方面，至於攸關產業發展的相關指標，包括：縣市的經濟表現、產業結構、研發創新、人力素質、國際化程度等方面比重甚低，忽略了我國經濟國際貿易依存度極高，面對國際市場競爭的特性，如過度強調生活品質面向，將難以客觀評量縣市總體競爭力。

肆、我國地方競爭力評比機制之建立及相關政策意涵

一、評量單元

區域是構成國家與城市之間的次系統之基本單位，各國的區域層級行政系統因政治制度不同，在範圍、功能上多所差異，因此國外對於地方競爭力的研究，多以城市作為衡量單元，以便進行跨國間或區域間的城市比較；我國由於直轄市及縣市政府為地方自治主體，中央對地方之財政補助也是以直轄市及縣市政府為對象，相關統計資料在地方層級也是以縣市為統計調查單元，因此均以縣市為地方競爭力評量單元應屬合理；若考量以都市層級作分組評比，屬都會層級的僅台北市、台中市及高雄市等三個人口超過一百萬以上的城市，由於數量太少，作競爭力分組評比似較不具意義，因此建議中央訂定地方競爭力評比機制，仍宜以25縣市為評量單元；鑑於我國並非單以城市作為評量標的，因此本章均以地方競爭力而不以城市競爭力稱之。

二、評比指標架構

地方競爭力提升的最終目的，在於提升居民生活品質與福祉，並達成永續發展。要達成競爭力的全面提升與永續發展，必須同時奠基於經濟、社會與環境三個面向，缺一不可。面對當前「全球化」與「知識化」二大經濟潮流下，無論是以農業、製造業、服務業為主的縣市，都無法自外於國際競爭，因此進行縣市競爭力評量，就必須充分考量人才、技術創新、公共政策效能、總體經濟環境、基礎建設、生活環境等各個影響競爭力的要項，才能夠真正體現各縣市在發展知識產業、因應國內外經濟競爭的真實潛能。以下僅表列我國地方競爭力評比指標架構，並提出相關說明：

我國地方競爭力評比指標架構

指標類型	指標內容
1.經濟表現	每人平均所得、企業投資與營收、勞動生產力、人口結構、失業率、就業結構、產業結構及產業技術密集程度
2.教育及人力素質	教育水準、技術性勞動力、國際化程度
3.創新與技術	研發創新投資、研發人力、技術移轉、專利
4.基礎設施	基本基礎設施、技術基礎設施、社會基礎設施
5.政府效能	財政收支、財政努力、法制環境、公共部門行政效率、貪污
6.生活品質	環境保護、文化休閒、住宅、交通、防災與公共安全、醫療保健、社區參與

(一)經濟表現

每人平均所得、就業與勞動生產力的高成長，代表城市經濟與

市場的持續擴張性；失業則攸關社會和諧穩定及商業投資環境品質；產業結構及技術密集程度、企業投資與營收成長，則反應產業技術層次、企業競爭能力、產業群聚效果，以及因應經濟環境變化的能力；至於人口結構則反映城市公共設施需求，以及福利性支出壓力、潛在勞動供給。

(二)教育及人力素質、創新與技術

知識經濟發展的關鍵在於人力素質與創新，因此教育投資與研發軟硬體環境、公私部門的研發創新投資與人力、技術引進與擴散、專利等至關重要；而城市軟硬體環境的國際化程度與市民國際化能力，影響國外新知識、新技術的有效引進與學習，以及城市融入國際市場分工的能力。

(三)基礎設施

基礎設施質量及其空間配置狀況影響產業競爭力至鉅，可概分為基本基礎設施、技術基礎設施、社會基礎設施三大類，基本基礎設施係指水電能源、交通、住宅等，技術基礎設施主要為現代化的通信資訊、電腦、網際網路及交通建設，社會基礎設施包括文化休閒、醫療衛生設施；其中技術性基礎設施因具有引進及培育高技術高附加價值產業，重要性日增。

(四)政府效能

縣市政府及首長的決策與管理能力、行政效率、公共財政、政策透明度、清廉度、對於企業營運的支持度等方面，除左右縣市發展願景與策略規劃的落實、商業經營環境與居民生活環境品質的良莠外，亦直接影響縣市的定位與發展、企業經營效率與投資意願，攸關城市競爭力的發展。

(五)生活品質

生活品質包括水、土、空氣等環境品質，藝文活動、綠地與休閒空間、住宅、大眾運輸與醫療保健服務品質，以及防災系統、公共安全、警政治安維護等，對於吸引企業投資、專業人才移入、居民生活福祉等有極大影響；同時透過提升社區民眾與企業對於公共事務的廣泛參與，促進社會和諧發展，間接提高城市生產力與綜合競爭能力。

以上係六大評比指標涵蓋內容，至於其下細項指標選定，尚須審慎界定競爭指標意義，並考量縣市之間可否互為比較、是否可長期持續觀察、指標資料是否易於取得等，本文不擬討論。

三、政策意涵

地方競爭力評比應建立公信力，切實成為地方與中央政府政策制(修)定的參考。

地方競爭力代表的是縣市在經濟、社會、環境三個層面的綜合發展能力，可說是縣市首長依據其施政藍圖、縣市綜合發展計畫的施政成果展現，不僅可供企業投資決策、居民就業居住的選擇參考，對於縣市政府及中央政府更具政策參考價值。

(一)對於縣市政府而言

1. 地方競爭力評比可作為縣市間良性競爭、相互比較學習的平台。

藉由客觀的縣市競爭資訊全面公開，使縣市首長與地方民眾了解競爭力的本質與影響競爭力的關鍵，改變部分地方政府長期以來故步自封與過度依賴中央的心態，激發榮譽感與競爭企圖心，展現地方活力；地方居民更可透過選票及「用腳投票」的方式，促

使縣市首長更為重視施政效能與建設品質，將有助於地方民主與施政的良性發展。

2. 縣市政府透過競爭力評比，了解自身與其他縣市在六個評比面向上相對的強項與弱項，運用SWOT分析方法，重新檢視修正自身的發展定位、競爭策略與執行成效，並可選定某一標竿縣市作為借鏡努力的目標(Benchmarking)，相互學習、截長補短，充分發揮反饋作用。

(二) 對中央政府而言

地方競爭力評比制度的推動，應成為中央與地方政府形成夥伴關係的契機，中央站在協助地方的立場，提供各縣市一個更為開放、公平競爭的環境，減少非必要的指揮干預，鼓勵自主發展地方特色，做到：

1. 檢討現行中央與地方間財政資源分配，並釐清中央與地方權責劃分與經費負擔爭議，落實地方自治；透過財政收支劃分法、公共債務法等相關法規修訂，適度提高地方自主財源；並採行鼓勵地方開源節流的「財政努力」誘因機制、貫徹財政紀律、建立績效審計制度等配套措施，以利地方適度控制財政支出規模，提升預算執行效率，達成「權力下放、提升地方財政自主、建構完善財政調整制度」目標，妥善解決財政惡化問題，賦予地方更多的自主發展空間與能力，以利各縣市競爭力充分發揮。

2. 針對各縣市在六大分項評比構面的競爭相對優劣勢，並就區域發展特性與發展差距，超越黨派政治選舉考量，採行濟弱扶強策略，透過相關產業發展、國土開發、區域發展、政府組織再造等政策及法規制訂，協助各縣市競爭力的全面提升。

3. 加強中央與地方政府之間的政策溝通協調，特別是各縣市的發展定位、發展策略必須與國家整體發展政策取得協調，才能發揮相加相乘的作用；鼓勵各縣市創新、差異化發展，建立地方核心特長，促成縣市間的策略性合作結盟與資源互補共享，以期打破零和競爭的迷思，避免一窩蜂的發展造成縣市惡性競爭與相互制肘，並減少重複與非必要的投資建設浪費。
4. 檢視重大政策落實於地方施政之成效，透過地方競爭力評比，可進一步了解中央推動之重大政策，包括產業、財政、教育、醫療、環保以及相關重大公共建設、計畫型補助款之實施成效，及其對於地方發展的影響，可做為中央政策制(修)訂的參考。

四、評比機制的建立

(一) 評比機構應具備專業與公信力

地方競爭力評比應由具公信力與專業性之機構辦理，以便有效處理龐雜的統計資料與辦理大規模意見調查，對於評比指標的訂定、資料處理、評比結果發布均應以公開透明程序辦理，避免政治或外力介入干擾，樹立評比制度的公信力，俾能切實發揮政策參考作用。

如由中央政府委託民間中立性的專業機構辦理，應較政府自行辦理具有公信力，易為社會各界接受，然如考量競爭力評比涉及全國25縣市大範圍的統計資料蒐集分析、意見調查及系統資料庫建置維護，為有效節省相關人力、行政成本，長期間仍宜由行政院主計處負責統籌規劃辦理，結合各縣市主計處(室)現有調查與統計專業人力負責實際調查作業，以及相關公務統計主辦單位配合執行，對於統計原始資料取得及資料處理可採一致標準作業程序，同時可依評

比指標所需配合建立必要的新統計指標資料，消除既有統計資料的偏限性，使評比結果更為客觀周延。

(二)地方競爭力意涵應廣為宣導，獲取社會共識

儘管國內外已有相關城市競爭力評比研究，然而社會各界對於中央應否推動地方競爭力評比仍存有許多誤解，部分人士解讀為中央欲藉評比結果作為地方補助款分配的依據，恐將扭曲補助制度的公平性或使評比成為政治角力工具，甚或影響選舉等，舉凡此類謬誤曲解勢將成為地方競爭力評比推動的障礙。因此中央在推動之初應即明確釐清地方競爭力的客觀評量本質及其政策意涵，廣為宣導，以降低相關政治敏感性，獲取社會共識與支持，以利評比制度順利推動。

(三)應長期持續推動

建議比照WEF及IMD每年定期提出國家競爭力年報的作法，有系統的持續辦理並定期公布，以提供中長期間各縣市競爭力相對提升或衰退狀況，以及區域發展的動態資訊，提高政策比較分析與檢討修正的參考價值。

伍、結語

地方競爭力的精髓，誠如國父孫中山先生在「上李鴻章書」中所言「人盡其才、地盡其利、物盡其用、貨暢其流」，地方政府應透過競爭力的評量分析，充分掌握影響自身競爭發展的優劣條件，以及競爭對手的發展狀況，擴大政府部門與民間部門的合作，結合其他城市策略聯盟，共謀促進經濟、社會與環境的全面發展，真正做到：「人盡其才」—建設良好的創新、學習、生活環境，吸引優

秀人才充分發揮所長，發展城市的核心特長產業，奠定知識經濟發展利基；「地盡其利」—城市依據主客觀資源、環境條件，正確作好城市定位，制定競爭發展策略，善用有限資源，擴大產業群聚效果；「物盡其用」—透過創新研發與知識應用，創造高附加價值產品；「貨暢其流」—配合城市發展之需，規劃提供適足的基礎公共設施與服務，輔以高效能的行政管理服務與法制環境配套，改善投資環境，提升產業競爭力。

在全球化與區域化經濟浪潮中，中央與地方經濟角色的遞嬗，城市(或地方)經濟競爭重要性雖大幅提升，然而中央政府在總體經濟政策框架以及資源分配方面，對於地方競爭發展仍有極大的影響力(視中央政府權力集中程度而定)，因此中央建立地方競爭力評比制度，不僅是促進各縣市良性競爭、地方政府施政及企業投資選擇的重要參考，中央政府更必須客觀審視各縣市競爭優劣勢，超越黨派政治考量，透過總體政策的靈活運用，協助、擴大地方自主發展空間，並促成縣市間的協調發展，以期透過地方競爭力的全面提升，促成國家競爭力的飛躍升級，最終達成增進國民生活品質，實現國家的永續發展。

Abstract

The state of Taiwan's financial sector reached a turning point in 2001-2002. Since then, considerable progress has been made in improving the sector's fundamental soundness. The process of merger and consolidation has picked up pace, reducing the number of financial institutions in the over-crowded market and helping to mitigate the problem of malignant competition. Financial institutions have also taken a vigorous approach to clearing bad loans, resulting in a dramatic fall in their NPL ratios. As financial soundness has improved and the market situation brightened, they have been able to increase their lending and investment, expand their business across the board, and strongly boost their profits.

As a whole, the financial market has been achieving steady gains in efficiency to match its improving fundamentals. The goal of our second phase of financial reforms is to develop Taiwan as a free, open, and efficient regional financial hub.

I. Introduction

In Taiwan, there is an oft-repeated saying that “as business is the roots, so finance is the leaves.” And as change in the industrial structure has clothed it in a new and glittering guise, finance has, in a sense, become synonymous with money. This is the allure of the financial services sector.

Certainly, financial crises did not appear in our world just yesterday. Such was their prevalence in the days of unfettered capitalism that governments were compelled to intervene and usher in the era of prudential regulation. The U.S. banking crisis in the late 1980s turned out to be a blessing as it resulted in the successful introduction of the government-led RTC (Resolution Trust Corporation). And cooperation between the government and private asset management companies (AMCs) provided a powerful driving force for the development of the U.S. bond and asset securitization markets. Moreover, monetary and financial policies have served as key instruments in the U.S. government’s efforts to strengthen the soundness of its financial institutions in recent years, helping the U.S. to consolidate its position as the wealthiest nation on earth in the last decade of the twentieth century.

In order to redress a number of weaknesses that were uncovered by the Asian financial crisis between mid-1997 and mid-1999, the governments of the affected countries embarked on programs of financial reform. The measures they introduced were primarily designed to improve bank balance sheets and profitability, in conjunction with active efforts to encourage consolidation in the banking industry.

Strictly speaking, financial reform is not confined to actions taken by the government alone. As a matter of fact, the power of financial reform comes from problem solving and the willingness to do things in a different manner – in other words, from innovation. A good illustration of this is the restructuring that banks have undertaken without being impelled to do so by government policy. Particular examples are Chinatrust Commercial Bank's introduction of new patterns of distribution and Cosmos Bank's launch of its innovative cashcard. The former has successfully established a new brand image and cemented its reputation as a leader in Taiwan's banking industry, while the latter has reaped high reward for its innovativeness by becoming the largest cashcard-issuing bank.

The Government has made a number of explicit statements about consolidation within the financial services industry during the last few months. An observation worth adding here is that, in such an environment, it is increasingly unlikely that any financial consolidation, be it management-oriented or simply a new national champion financial institution, can be brought to fruition without the cooperation of all involved parties. Nevertheless, there is no doubt that the government's policy initiatives herald a new era in the provision of financial services in Taiwan.

It should also be mentioned that, from the financial supervisor's point of view, risk management is becoming more and more important in face of the swiftly rising tide of global capital flows and financial consolidation.

Given that policies have now taken up the leading role in the process of financial consolidation, I will focus my presentation on the background of Taiwan's government-led financial reforms since 2000, the government's main measures, its achievements, and the future of Taiwan's financial services sector.

II. The Background of Government-led Financial Reforms since 2000

First, I can say with great certainty that we should appreciate the lessons we have been able to learn from the experience of other countries, such as the way the FDIC (Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation) and RTC dealt with banking and thrift crises in the U.S. in the late 1980s to early 1990s, and the playing out of the Asian financial crisis that erupted in mid-1997.

Now Taiwan must respond to the new era of fast-changing information technologies and trade liberalization by moving toward a knowledge-based economy. In such an environment, it is increasingly essential for the government to constantly monitor and analyze the state of the financial services sector and the problems in the way of its healthy development, and to formulate and implement strategies and action plans for making adjustments and improvements wherever they are needed.

As you know, Taiwan's banks have had to contend with major challenges in the recent past, especially in dealing with the surge of their non-performing loans (NPLs) during 1998-2002. But in the past two years, since the government launched a drive to promote financial reform, there has been a notable improvement in the financial sector's state of health, with banks having managed to write off a high proportion of their bad debt and reduce the NPL ratio quite considerably.

I will begin with a brief account of the changing business and financial environment before the first-stage financial reforms proposed by the Executive Yuan's Financial Reform Taskforce in July 2002. I will then examine the background of Taiwan's second-stage financial reforms proposed by the Cabinet-level Council for Economic Planning and Development (CEPD) and Financial Supervisory Commission (FSC), and endorsed by the President's Economic Advisory Group.

1. The background of the first-stage financial reforms

(1) Spike in NPLs

According to government figures, the NPL ratio of depository institutions soared from around 3% in 1995 to nearly 8.8% at the end of March 2002. Some analysts, including international credit rating organizations, suggested that it might actually be even higher.

NPLs not only created problems for the financial sector's balance sheet on the asset side, but also created a negative impact on income statements as a result of provisioning for loan losses. Therefore, financial institutions had to devote substantial manpower to recovering bad loans, which adversely affected their normal operations. Loaded with past-due loans, they became more conservative and cautious in lending money to businesses, which further damped the chance of economic rebound. Thus, the weakening of financial institutions' asset quality led in turn to a contraction of their lending and investment, squeezing their profitability and reducing their return on equity.

(2) Surge in troubled financial institutions

A surge in the number of unsoundly operating financial institutions, including domestic banks and community financial institutions, posed the threat of triggering a financial crisis. After the bursting of the real-estate bubble, many community financial institutions found themselves facing serious difficulties, largely owing to structurally-derived problems. According to government statistics, more than ten percent of such institutions had a negative adjusted net worth by the end of 2000. To head off the danger that this situation might generate a full-blown financial crisis, the government needed to act quietly and smoothly in effecting the withdrawal of the failing lenders from the market.

(3) Challenge of combating financial crimes

Although Taiwan promulgated the Money Laundering Control Act on April 23, 1997 and became the first economy in Asia to enact an anti-money laundering law to effectively prevent money-laundering activities and strengthen international cooperation on counter-terrorism, we know very well that the task of combating financial crimes is far from being done. This is a hugely challenging area that requires enormous and unceasing efforts to keep up with and tackle the myriad and constantly changing faces of financial crimes.

2. The background of the second-stage financial reforms

With the financial sector having been restored to a much sounder condition thanks in large measure to the effectiveness of the first-stage financial reforms, it is necessary to take the reform program into a more advanced stage that focuses on the objectives of beefing up the international competitiveness of the financial industry, heightening its value added, strengthening its functions in serving the fund-raising and capital-deployment needs of enterprises that are positioning themselves regionally and globally, and enhancing its contribution to promoting stable economic growth. Actions taken toward these ends need to address five particular areas of concern as follows:

(1)The regulatory environment needs to be further improved and integrated in step with the development of the financial sector.

Now that Taiwan has a substantial number of financial holding companies that are expanding their operations, and the government has opened the way for banks to engage in cross-marketing of financial products, all current finance-related laws and regulations need to be reviewed and revised with emphasis on financial liberalization and risk management.

(2) Financial institutions need to upgrade their operational efficiency to meet the demands of intense market competition and the dynamic development of the economy.

The fragile financial market and the relatively small scale of financial institutions hamper the pace of product innovation and efforts to take advantage of economy of scale, while the limited liberalization of the domestic financial market also makes it difficult for banks to develop differentiated operations. The average scale of Taiwan's banks is relatively small compared with their main counterparts elsewhere in Asia, though a report in the International Chinese Newsweekly showed Taiwan as having 42 banks ranked among the Asian top 300 in terms of total assets, a number surpassed only by Japan and well ahead of third-placed India. The Asia's regional services center, such as Hong Kong and Singapore, average asset relative to Taiwan's is more than two-fold and four-fold, respectively.

Asia's Largest 300 Banks by Assets

Country/Area	Banks
	Number	Shares of Total Assets (%)	The Average Asset Scale Relative to Taiwan's (%)
Japan	129	56.4	3.40
Mainland China	16	19.8	1.24
Taiwan	42	5.4	1.00
South Korea	14	5.0	2.78
Hong Kong	18	4.9	2.12
India	23	2.7	0.91
Singapore	3	1.8	4.67
Malaysia	17	1.5	0.55
Thailand	11	1.2	0.85
Indonesia	12	0.8	0.52

Macao	3	0.1	0.26
Total	300	100.0	2.59

- (3) The pace and scope of business and product liberalization and the reform of finance-related taxation need to be stepped up to keep abreast of international norms.

The great majority of financial institutions in Taiwan engage in only the conventional lines of business such as deposit, lending, securities, insurance, and mutual funds, and they have to contend with the differing tax rates currently applied to new financial products. These circumstances put our financial institutions at a disadvantage in competing internationally.

- (4) Greater efforts need to be made to cultivate and import high-caliber financial personnel.

Past policies and practices adopted in the development process of the financial services sector in Taiwan have thwarted the internationalization of our financial markets. Consequently, the personnel of financial institutions tend to lack experience and expertise in this regard, while the industry as a whole is beset by a shortage of international level of financial executives.

- (5) The newly constructed financial supervisory system and financial institutions' risk control capabilities still need to be enhanced and fine-tuned to meet the increasing challenges that will come with the intensifying globalization of financial services and to ensure that Taiwan's financial stability can be maintained.

With the rapid development of globalization, a paradigm shift in the financial services industry is taking shape. The distinction between the financial and non-financial sectors will become increasingly blurred, and cross-border capital movements will be completed at one stroke of the finger. It is essential that Taiwan's supervisory system and financial institutions are properly prepared to cope with the heightened complexities and risks that these developments will bring.

III. The Main Measures & Achievements of Taiwan's Financial Reforms

Our government has taken the approach of placing equal emphasis on supervision, de-regulation and self-discipline while striving to achieve the optimum balance between pressing ahead with financial reform and maintaining financial stability. Some of the main achievements of these efforts thus far are as follows:

1. The slashing of the Gross Business-Revenue Tax (GBRT) and other measures aimed at helping financial institutions accelerate the reduction of their NPLs.

Although Taiwan's economy weathered the Asian financial crisis much better than many of its neighbors, its financial sector sustained a jolt that made domestic market conditions more difficult in the closing years of the 1990s and caused a sharp rise in banking institutions' NPL ratios. The government responded by prioritizing the introduction of measures to help banks reduce their NPL ratios, most notably the cutting of the gross business-revenue tax levied on banks from 5% to 2% in 1999, which helped them write off bad loans amounting to 40.3 billion U.S. dollars.

At the same time, legislation was enacted to pave the way for establishing AMCs, as a mechanism for speeding up the disposition of NPLs. Many domestic banks took advantage of this opening to form AMCs through strategic alliance or joint-venture partnership with well-known international investment bankers.

Additional measures to help domestic financial institutions improve the quality of their assets and to reduce the cost of disposing of their NPLs were promulgated in 2003. Also, to make the calculation of Taiwan's NPL ratios consistent with international practice, a new set of standards was laid down, to come into effect on July 1, 2005, requiring banks to classify their loan portfolios into five categories according to the credit-risk assessment and make appropriate loan-loss provision for each category as stipulated.

Thanks to these measures and the concerted efforts of the government and financial institutions, sales of foreclosed real estate to AMCs had recovered some 15 billion U.S. dollars, covering about 30 percent of cleared NPLs, by the end of 2004. The total amount of past-due loans of domestic banks dropped from 348 billion U.S. dollars in March 2002 to 153 billion U.S. dollars as of the end of October 2004, reducing the average past-due loan ratio from 8.04% to 3.32% over the same period. Moreover, the ratio of loans under surveillance to total loan assets also dropped from 3.70% to 1.19%. With this success, the government achieved the targets of the so-called “258 Initiative,” announced by President Chen in May 2002, to reduce the overall NPL ratio to no more than 5% and increase the capital adequacy ratio to at least 8% for the banking sector within two years.

Such highly positive developments as the dramatic reduction of the NPL ratio over the past two and a bit of years have been accompanied by a substantial improvement in the profitability of Taiwan’s banks, a trend that is likely to be further strengthened by the industry’s improving asset quality and the continued stable performance of Taiwan’s economy that most forecasters expect.

2. The enactment of a series of new and revised finance-related laws and active steps to arrange the takeover of ailing financial institutions.

From 2000 through 2004, a series of new and revised laws were drafted and enacted to comprehensively reform, supplement and strengthen the basic architecture of the financial system. The most important items of legislation were as follows:

Date of Promulgation	Name of Law
Nov. 2000	Financial Institutions Merger Act
July 2001	Six Financial Regulations: Statute for the Establishment and Management of the Executive Yuan's Financial Restructuring Fund; Financial Holding Company Act; Act Governing Bills Finance Business; Value-added and Non-value-added Business Tax Act; partial revision of the Deposit Insurance Act; partial revision of the Insurance Act;
July 2002	Financial Asset Securitization Act Statue for the Protection of Securities Investors and Futures Dealers
July 2003	Organizational Act for the Executive Yuan's Financial Supervision and Management Commission Real Estate Securitization Act Agricultural Finance Act
June 2004	Securities Investment Trust and Consultants Act

Source: Council for Economic Planning and Development, November 2004.

(1) Statute for the Establishment and Management of the Executive Yuan's Financial Restructuring Fund

The Financial Restructuring Fund was set up in July 2001 to provide a mechanism and funding for the withdrawal of ailing institutions from the financial market and the absorption of unsound financial institutions by stronger market participants.

To enable problem financial institutions to be dealt with as swiftly and effectively as possible, and to obviate the risk of a crisis of confidence among depositors setting off a chain reaction, the Financial Restructuring Fund Statute canceled the stipulation in the Deposit Insurance Act that the cost of handling problem financial institutions must not exceed the loss arising from the cash pay-offs. The Statute also stipulates that the Fund shall provide a transitional blanket guarantee to all depositors and other creditors of the problem financial institutions handled by the Fund.

Forty-four poorly performing community financial institutions, including eight credit cooperative associations and thirty-six credit departments of farmers' and fishermen's associations, were taken over by ten domestic banks under the government's financial restructuring policy during 2001~2002.

Given the high level of crowding and resulting intense competition in Taiwan's banking sector, the reduction of the number of financial institutions is one of the key prerequisites for improving the soundness of our financial markets. Substantial progress has already been achieved on this front, with the number of depository institutions having been reduced from 455 in 2000 to exactly 400 in 2004. Further significant steps were made with the completion of a deal for E. Sun Commercial Bank to take over Kaohsiung Medium Business Bank in June 2004, and the takeover of Chung Shing Bank by Union Bank of Taiwan in December 2004, which was the most recent example of the effective operation of this fund.

A draft amendment to the Statute providing for a substantial increase in the fund is currently under deliberation in the legislature. If the enlargement of the fund is approved, it is expected to significantly expedite the process of dealing with the distressed financial institutions.

Meanwhile, continuing effort is being directed toward constructing a financial security net by replacement of the Restructuring Fund with a deposit insurance system after the fund expires on July 9, 2005.

(2) Financial Holding Company Act

To create a vibrant and innovative financial market, Taiwan has updated the legal framework to facilitate financial market consolidation. The Financial Institutions Merger Act and the Financial Holding Company Act were enacted to promote mergers of financial institutions and speed up M&A activities. So far, 14 financial holding companies (FHCs) have been established, with 89 financial institutions incorporated into these FHCs. Vibrant activity on the M&A front is expected to continue as the government maintains its efforts to promote financial sector consolidation.

(3) Asset Securitization Acts

The enactment of the Financial Asset Securitization Act in July 2002 and the Real Estate Securitization Act in July 2003 opened up bright prospects for the development of the asset securitization market in Taiwan.

To further facilitate the development of this market, the government is planning to streamline the process of securitization applications by allowing certain cases to be exempted from approval requirements. Consideration is also being given to introducing synthetic securitizations which are not covered by the current laws. More institutional investors will be allowed to invest in securitization products and general taxation treatments will be developed for such products.

(4) Organizational Act for the Executive Yuan's Financial Supervisory Commission

In order to promote consolidated financial supervision and ensure financial stability while keeping abreast of the times, Taiwan passed the Act Governing the Establishment and Organization of the Financial Supervisory Commission on July 10, 2003. A new agency, named the Financial Supervisory Commission (FSC), was set up on July 1, 2004 to consolidate the supervision of the banking, securities, futures and insurance industries under one roof, as well as to integrate the tasks of examining these industries.

Accorded separate status from the Ministry of Finance (MOF), the FSC is endowed with complete and exclusive responsibility for financial supervision, discharging its functions entirely independently from the fiscal functions of the government. The establishment of the FSC and the transformation of the supervisory structure will add new momentum to Taiwan's financial regulatory reform and give a strong boost to the development of Taiwan's financial sector.

As the financial landscape continues to change, Taiwan will strive to keep abreast of international trends by closely monitoring the global economy and actively participating in international financial activities. It will adopt flexible and adaptable supervisory regimes and actively consult with the industry to better enhance the dynamism and competitiveness of its financial markets.

3. Measures aimed at enhancing the operation of financial institutions.

Amendment of the Money Laundering Control Act was passed into law on August 6, 2003. The amended provisions of the Act stipulate that, in addition to verifying the identity of customers, financial institutions are required to keep records of cash transactions exceeding one million N.T. dollars (approximately 30,000 U.S. dollars) for at least five years and to report every such transaction to the Money Laundering Prevention Center for crime-prevention analysis. On-site examinations will be conducted to ensure compliance with the new law, and a financial institution that is found to have violated this requirement will be subject to a fine of up to one million N.T. dollars.

Moreover, the amendment gives the competent authority powers for taking action where there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that a financial institution is being used as a money-laundering channel, and empowers prosecutors and judges to freeze suspected terrorist assets even at the early stage of an investigation and in cases where no crime has been committed in Taiwanese territory.

The government has also taken a number of measures to tackle the problem of credit card fraud. In addition to laying down stiffer penalties for producing counterfeit credit cards, the authorities have set requirements for credit card issuers to participate in a real-time reporting system to aid the detection of criminal activities. Meanwhile, the international credit card organizations, the JCIC, NCIC and part of local banks have developed intelligent detection systems to identify fraudulent transactions.

In response to the 911 terrorist attacks, Taiwan issued a guideline requiring every financial institution to establish a computer database to include all listed and known terrorists. Taiwan also held training programs and seminars to promote awareness of fighting money laundering.

In addition, amendments to the Banking Law, the Financial Holding Company Act, the Act Governing Bills Finance Business, the Trust Enterprise Act, the Credit Cooperatives Act, the Securities Exchange Law, and the Insurance Law, approved by the legislature on February 4, 2004, substantially increased penalties for financial crimes across the board. The amendments to the related laws which are currently under deliberation in the legislature provided that any transfer of assets by a senior manager or CEO in violation of the Banking Law or Securities Law will be treated as invalid, and shall need quick delivery and quick decision.

With these and other such measures in place, we will continue doing our utmost to ensure that transaction security is safeguarded and that all financial institutions comply with international standards on account opening procedures and anti-money laundering practices. And since money laundering is cross-border in nature, Taiwan will endeavor to work as closely as possible with international anti-money laundry organizations in fighting terrorist financing activities.

4. Measures aimed at broadening market access and attracting foreign investment.

In this regard, our primary aim is to create an environment that gives stronger banks more room for innovation, thereby invigorating the financial market as a whole. Toward this end, the competent authority has switched the emphasis of supervision from the administration of business rules and regulations to the proactive strengthening of the makeup of financial institutions with a view to effectively boosting their competitiveness.

With regard to liberalizing capital movements and opening up the domestic market, two major steps were taken in 2003 when first, in August, foreign bank branches in Taiwan were allowed to start issuing financial debentures, and second, in September, the screening system for qualified foreign institutional investors (QFII) was abolished. In the case of the former, debenture issuance was capped at twice the issuing institution's net worth for the previous year; and the abolishment of the QFII system, which had been in operation for the past 12 years, meant that Taiwan's stock market was fully opened to foreign investment.

Other notable measures include extending the functions of offshore banking units (OBUs) and broadening eligibility to conduct bond-related transactions. The regulations governing OBUs were revised to give them greater leeway in conducting cross-strait financial transactions and to strengthen their functionality as capital deployment centers for Taiwanese businesses operating abroad and in mainland China, while the granting of permission for domestic and foreign banks to conduct bond underwriting and own-account bond dealing has given a substantial boost to the growth of the domestic bond market.

Now, in line with the government policy of promoting Taiwan's development as a regional financial services center (which I will have more to say about later), we will be placing particular emphasis on the development of our capital market's fund-raising functions and the promotion of the asset management business.

To promote Taiwan's development as a regional fund-raising center, we will do our utmost to provide the kind of market efficiency and accommodative business environment that will induce such international financial institutions as the Asian Development Bank (ADB), the Central American Bank for Economic Integration (CABEI), the Inter-American Development Bank (IADB), the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development (EBRD), the Nordic Investment Bank (NIB), the European Investment Bank (EIB), and the Council of Europe Development Bank (CEDB), among others, to increase their issuance of N.T. dollar denominated bonds and debentures from their outstanding value of some five billion U.S. dollars as of the end of October last year, while continuing to improve our credentials as a sound and smooth-functioning financing environment for local and overseas Taiwanese companies as well as multi-national enterprises.

To promote asset management business in Taiwan, we will be pushing ahead with multiple initiatives aimed at fostering the creation of a broad range of asset management options for international institutions and individual investors to take advantage of.

IV. Looking to the Future of Financial Services in Taiwan

Alongside the major efforts that have been made to overhaul the financial sector in recent years, the public and private sectors have been working hard together to advance Taiwan's development as a knowledge-based economy and to pursue environmental sustainability as a core element of national development goals. Financial reform is one facet of a multi-faceted drive to comprehensively upgrade the economy and, building on the solid foundations laid down over the past several decades, open up bright new prospects for Taiwan and everyone living and investing here.

A key part of the steps to be taken toward that end is set out in the Challenge 2008 National Development Plan, a six-year blueprint for national development that was launched in 2002. Involving projected total investment of 2.6 trillion N.T. dollars, the plan is designed to equip Taiwan with all that it essentially needs for the achievement of its lofty development goals and the ultimate transition of our homeland into a "green silicon island."

As we proceed with the implementation of this plan, complemented by the major bolstering of infrastructure mapped out in the New Ten Projects, we will also continue to attach high importance to carrying out a range of initiatives aimed at strengthening the fundamental soundness of the financial sector, enhancing its role in our economy, and opening up the best possible prospects for it to become a jewel of our economy in the future. I would now like to say something more about four of what I consider as the most important of these initiatives, namely: the Regional Financial Services Center Promotional Program; the supplementation and amendment of related laws and regulations; the privatization of state-owned banks, and the enhancement of corporate governance in Taiwan.

1. Regional Financial Services Center Promotional Program

In order to help investors to use their capital more efficiently, and boost the island's development into a regional financial services center, the government will continue to open financial markets for both domestic and foreign investors. Last year, the CEPD brought together representatives from related government departments, scholars and experts to study how to rework the vision of developing Taiwan as a regional financial services center, and set up working groups to hammer out specific goals and plans, which were approved by the Executive Yuan in November.

As we proceed with the implementation of this program, we will continue to push forward the enhancement of our financial institutions' products and encourage them to provide increased versatility in cost control and operations for Taiwanese and foreign investors. For example, we will continue to review and simplify procedures for foreign investment in Taiwan's securities markets, as a means of increasing the proportion of capital market transactions conducted by foreign institutional investors in Taiwan.

Following the new guidelines of "openness, innovation and efficiency," we hope to build a macro financial environment that allows the financial sector to maximize its strengths and elevates the international stature of our financial markets. Our aims include increasing the financial sector's share of GDP, increasing the amount of funds raised by multinational corporations and international institutions in Taiwan, and expanding the issuance of asset-backed securities.

Moreover, at the conclusion of a meeting of the Economic Advisory Group in October 2004, President Chen explicitly instructed related government agencies to take concrete steps to promote consolidation in the financial sector. He set four specific targets for achieving this end as follows: (1) at least one domestic institution in each financial field should become established as a representative regional player by the end of 2005; (2) the number of financial institutions in which the government holds a stake should be reduced from twelve to six by the end of 2005; (3) the number of financial holding companies should be halved from fourteen to seven by the end of 2006; and (4) at least one domestic financial institution should be run by a foreign-owned entity or be listed on an overseas stock exchange by the end of 2006, as a means of upgrading the efficiency and liberalization of Taiwan's financial market.

In pursuit of these goals, we have set a number of specific targets as follows:

- (1) For the financial services sector to raise its share of GDP from 11.3% in 2003 to 13.0% by the end of 2008.
- (2) For one to three financial institutions to become established as representative regional operators by the end of 2008.
- (3) For stocks held by foreign entities to rise as a percentage of total market capitalization from 18.8% to 25.0% in 2008.
- (4) For the amount of funds raised in Taiwan by multinational corporations and international institutions to double by the end of 2008.
- (5) For the issuance of asset-backed securities to grow four-fold.
- (6) For the assets of financial institutions as a whole to grow more than 30% over the same period.

To achieve these goals, it is essential that every effort be made to cultivate and attract high-caliber financial professionals to work in Taiwan's financial industry. The government will therefore implement a range of measures to help achieve this. For example, as part of its efforts to cultivate top-notch talent, it will administer a program to select young people with outstanding potential for excelling in this field and sponsor them to study at the best academic institutions abroad. And to help induce the cream of foreign professionals to live and work in Taiwan, it will consider permitting financial institutions to provide them with loans for purchasing their own homes to reside in while they stay here.

2. Supplementing and amending related laws and regulations

On November 10, 2004, the Executive Yuan approved a timetable for progress on 29 bills designed to speed up the deregulation of Taiwan's domestic services market. At that time, fourteen of the bills had already been sent to the Legislative Yuan for deliberation, seven were scheduled to be drafted and submitted to the Executive Yuan for approval by the end of the year; and the other eight needed more time for coordination due to the broader scope of their coverage.

In addition, the CEPD and the Ministry of Economic Affairs (MOEA) will this year assess the feasibility of formulating a "Limited Partnership Act" aimed at heightening the flexibility of corporate operations. If enacted as envisaged, it will be of particular benefit to venture capital firms, giving them a more flexible and clearly defined mechanism for withdrawal from the market, and thus helping to attract long-term domestic and foreign capital into the venture capital industry.

Also, in response to requests from foreign companies operating in Taiwan, the Judicial Yuan has made a policy decision to map out the establishment of a special court for corporate reorganization and bankruptcy, to speed up the review of corporate reorganization application and bankruptcy cases. With a view to making the review process more efficient, the Judicial Yuan drew lessons from the manner in which Japan revised its bankruptcy law, concentrating reorganization cases in the jurisdiction of a special court and planning the court of jurisdiction for bankruptcy cases flexibly depending on whether the case involves a private individual or a company, the number of creditors involved, the amount of debt, and other factors. In the near future, the Judicial Yuan will further solicit the opinions of foreign companies and formulate the necessary accompanying measures.

3. Privatization of state-owned banks

Government-owned banks used to dominate the local banking industry until the early 1990s, when Taiwan embarked on financial liberalization by granting new banking licenses and encouraging foreign banks to enter the domestic market. As a result of increasing competition and the government's privatization policy, 1991 marked the turning point for a shift in market dominance from government-owned banks to private banks. Up to the end of 2002, nine government-owned banks had been privatized.

To facilitate a freer, fairer and more open financial market in Taiwan, the Ministry of Finance (MOF), after successfully assisting the privatization of nine state-owned banks, plans to undertake further transfers to the private sector of its remaining stakes in banks, in accordance with the consensus reached at the Economic Development Advisory Conference of 2001. Three state-owned banks, namely Bank of Taiwan, Land Bank of Taiwan, and Central Trust of China, are scheduled to be privatized, with the government's shareholding in these financial institutions set to be reduced to below 20% of ownership by August 2006. The government has also made the decision not to subscribe to any new share issuances of privatized financial institutions.

4. Enhancement of corporate governance

Another essential step forward in the process of bolstering the financial industry is the implementation of the Policy Agenda and Action Plan to Strengthen Corporate Governance, as formulated by the cross-ministerial Corporate Governance Reform Task Force in 2003. This initiative places prime emphasis on reform in companies listed on the stock and over-the-counter markets, especially financial service firms, to be followed by the gradual inclusion of other kinds of business in due course.

Among the key points of focus of the action plan are the strengthening of companies' internal controls, the orderly establishment of a system of independent directors, the protection of investor interests, and the reinforcement of public disclosure requirements.

V. Conclusion

In summary, the state of Taiwan's financial sector reached a turning-point in 2001-2002. Since then, there has been considerable progress in improving its fundamental soundness. The process of merger and consolidation has picked up pace, reducing the number of financial institutions in the over-crowded market and helping to mitigate the problem of malignant competition. Banks have made substantial adjustments to their business operations, with the establishment of financial holding companies enabling them to offer a full array of financial services under one roof. They have also taken a vigorous approach to clearing bad loans, resulting in a dramatic fall in their NPL ratios. As their financial soundness has improved and the market situation brightened, they have been able to increase their lending and investment, expand their business across the board, and strongly boost their profits.

As a whole, the financial market has been achieving steady gains in efficiency to match its improving fundamentals. This is especially important to Taiwan's financial stability, which forms the bedrock of sustained economic development as it enables the private sector to reach sound judgments on production plans and trade decisions under a consistent macro environment. Much of the financial industry's change for the better over the years can be attributed to the government's continuous efforts to guide its development along a sound course in tune with the trends and needs of the times.

In recent years, financial supervision in Taiwan has advanced a long way. Now it is of paramount importance that financial reform and corporate restructuring should also be carried forward to the highest possible level. The earlier this can be achieved, the higher its benefits will be and the lower its costs for our society as a whole. The opening up of our financial markets must be matched by the reinforcement of the functions of financial supervision and enhancement of the operational efficiency of financial institutions. Only thus can we be sure that our financial markets will continue to develop as soundly as we are aiming for, and be able to play an optimum role in the overall advancement of Taiwan's economy.

The goal of our second phase of financial reforms is to develop Taiwan as a free, open and efficient regional financial hub. We welcome foreign investors to establish new financial institutions and invest in domestic banks in Taiwan, and believe we all stand to benefit richly as increasing liberalization and internationalization carry our financial industry forward into a bright new era of success and prosperity.

■ Premier Hsieh Asks AmCham to Boost FTA with U.S.

In a recent meeting with representatives from the American Chamber of Commerce in Taipei, Premier Frank Hsieh emphasized that the signing of a free trade agreement (FTA) between Taiwan and the United States would help strengthen economic relations between the two sides and would also benefit America's global strategic deployment. Complex issues are involved in the signing of such an agreement, however, and so the Premier asked AmCham to serve as a "mover" for the FTA so as to facilitate the development of international economic opportunities by both sides.

The eight-person delegation, led by AmCham president Tom Johnson and executive director Richard Vuylsteke, met with the Premier on June 10 to explain the key parts of AmCham's 2005 Taiwan White Paper. The delegation expressed appreciation for the efforts of the Executive Yuan in resolving the issues raised by AmCham, and voiced the hope of greater cooperative efforts in the future.

The Premier noted that the White Paper provided many helpful suggestions regarding political, economic, and social policies. Regarding the problem of human resources, with which foreign companies are so concerned, the Premier pointed out that the Executive Yuan has consistently attached high importance on meeting the needs created by the globalization of business operations, and that his government would continue to review human resources issues. During the past year, he said, the Executive Yuan has worked to implement a number of measures that loosen restrictions on the entry and exit of foreign personnel. These measures have made it easier, for example, for businesses to invite people from mainland China to visit Taiwan to conduct businesses; they have eliminated the requirement that the mainland Chinese spouses of foreign personnel find a guarantor before coming to Taiwan; they have cancelled the requirement that such spouses surrender their passports upon entering Taiwan; they allow mainland Chinese professionals to purchase cars in Taiwan; and they have simplified re-entry application procedures for the spouses of mainland Chinese professionals. Also, to boost the supply of local managerial talent for multinational firms operating in Taiwan, the Ministry of Economic Affairs is coordinating with universities for the establishment of special industrial management MBA courses. Furthermore, last December the Executive Yuan expanded the scope of its inter-agency meetings on science/technology manpower to include non-sci/tech human resources. The meetings will map out strategies and action plans for the cultivation of talent and the development of manpower resources, with focus directed to the education system, vocational training, and overseas recruitment.

The Premier emphasized that the Council for Economic Planning and Development (CEPD) is mapping out policies in response to the views expressed by AmCham regarding the shortage of human resources and the need to speed up the application procedure for multinational firms bringing mainland Chinese employees to Taiwan. The CEPD will also call a ministerial meeting to discuss these matters as soon as possible.

In its White Paper, AmCham lauded Taiwan's executive and legislative agencies for progress made in 2004 on a number of important matters, and in recognition of that progress removed 20 of the issues raised in the previous year's report. The progress includes the revision of the Copyright Law (affirming Taiwan's determination to strike at copyright piracy, an accomplishment which had a direct influence on the removal of the island from the U.S. Special 301 Watch List); the Pharmaceutical Affairs Law

(to protect data exclusivity for pharmaceutical companies in the process of applying for marketing permission); and the Regulations Governing Permission for People from the Area of Mainland China to Travel to Taiwan for Commercial Activities (to relax the rules for mainland Chinese employees of multinational enterprises entering Taiwan). At the same time, AmCham approvingly recognized the progress manifested in Taiwan's establishment of the Financial Supervisory Commission as an independent and professional agency, and in the island's comprehensive planning for the second phase of financial reform as well as the review of the terms & conditions of public construction contracts.

Legislative Updates

■ Government Adds NT$110 Billion to Strengthen Financial Restructuring

To reinforce Taiwan's financial reform, the President promulgated a revision of the Statute for Establishment and Management of the Resolution Trust Corporation Fund (RTC Fund) on June 22, providing for an additional budget of NT$110 billion to be used for the disposition of problem financial institutions.

The revised statute calls for 20% of the additional budget to be used to provide reparation for the credit unions of farmers' and fishermen's associations. Other key points of the revision include a fund linking mechanism, a method for guaranteeing non-deposit debt, and the establishment of an assessment committee.

Since the RTC fund was established in July of 2001, a total of 48 financial institutions with weak management have been disposed of and financial institutions as a whole have written off a total of more than NT$1.4 trillion in bad debt, bringing the island's overall non-performing-loan (NPL) ratio down to 2.76%. In addition, 14 financial holding companies have been established.

In line with the revision of the RTC Statute, on the same day the Legislative Yuan passed a revision of the Value-Added and Non-Value-Added Business Tax Law to cancel the business tax exemption for financial institutions beginning in 2006. In the future, the 2% business tax paid by financial institutions will be used as a source for the RTC fund.

For more information on the revision of the RTC Statute, please go online and consult <http://npl.ly.gov.tw/do/forward?dest=www.lawStatisticsContent&url=http://lis.ly.gov.tw/npl.fast/01637/940531.htm>. For the revision of the Value-Added and Non-Value-

Added Business Tax Law, consult <http://npl.ly.gov.tw/do/forward?dest=www.lawStatisticsContent&url=http://lis.ly.gov.tw/npl.fast/01521/940531.htm>.

■ Legislative Yuan Approves Special NT$90.5 Billion Budget for Expanded Public Construction

On May 31, in accordance with the provisions of the Special Statute for Expanded Investment in Public Construction, the Legislative Yuan approved a "Special Budget Bill for the Expansion of Investment in Public Construction Projects by the Central Government in Fiscal Year 2005." The bill calls for the investment of NT$90.5 billion to carry out major public construction projects in the areas of culture, education, transportation and communications, science and technology, and water resources. The aim is to speed up and upgrade national economic development.

Under the Executive Yuan's plan, the 2005 special budget will be invested in the establishment of: top-notch universities and research centers (NT$10 billion), international art and popular music centers (NT$1.4 billion), M-Taiwan Plan (NT$2.8 billion), the mass-rapid-transit transformation of Taiwan railroads (NT$1.9 billion), the third wave of freeway (NT$9 billion), the intercontinental container terminal in the port of Kaohsiung (NT$23.7 billion), mass-rapid-transit systems in northern, central, and southern Taiwan (NT$48 billion), sewage system (NT$3.4 billion), and the desalination plants at flatland reservoirs.

According to the Special Statute for Expanded Investment in Public Construction, in the five years beginning in 2005 the government will raise NT$500 billion in funds to carry out cultural and other important public construction projects. During the five years of implementation, the construction work will add an annual average of 64,000 jobs and raise real GDP by 1.0 to 1.03 percentage points. Between NT$7 billion and NT$150 billion will be added to tax revenues during the period, and the additional tax revenues generated during the next 25 years are conservatively estimated at about NT$140 billion. For details on the contents of the special budget bill, go online and visit <http://www.dgbas.gov.tw/ct.asp?xItem=3735&CtNode=1807>.

■ Company Law Revision to Reinforce Corporate Governance

The President promulgated a revision of the Company Law on June 22, strengthening corporate governance by adding provisions regarding shareholders' rights to propose motions, a nomination system for directors and supervisors, and an absentee voting system for shareholders. The main points of the revision are as follows:

1. Non-corporate juridical persons may also act as promoters. In other words, corporations or juridical persons who provide self-developed technologies or other intellectual properties in exchange for shares, or who are approved by the competent authority, may act as company promoters. (Article 128 of the revised law)
2. To cope with the issuance of new financial products and make the issuance of new shares more convenient, companies themselves are authorized to decide how many shares to issue when they are established or when they increase their capital. They are no longer required to issue at least one-fourth of their total shares. (Articles 156 and 278 of the revised law)
3. To make use of the progress that has taken place in electronic technology and to save on corporate notification costs, notification for shareholders' meetings and the production and distribution of meeting minutes may be handled by electronic methods in accordance with the provisions of the Electronic Signatures Law. (Articles 172 and 183 of the revised law)

4. In reference to foreign laws which grant shareholders the right to raise proposals, a single shareholder or group of shareholders who own 1/100 or more of a company's total shares may submit proposals of up to 300 words as an agenda item for regular shareholders' meetings. Those who submit such proposals must attend the relevant shareholders' meeting and participate in the discussion of them.

The Ministry of Economic Affairs, which is the competent authority for the Company Law, explains that the revisions are in line with world trends and are designed to expand shareholder rights, stimulate shareholders' awareness of their power, and strengthen the protection of shareholders. This, in turn, should make for a healthier managerial structure, mold a stronger culture of corporate governance, and enhance the global competitiveness of Taiwan's companies. In this regard, the revision has important significance for Taiwan's economic development and for its corporate operations. For more details on the revision of the Company Law, please consult <http://npl.ly.gov.tw/do/forward?dest=www.lawStatisticsContent&url=http://lis.ly.gov.tw/npl/fast/04517/940527.htm>.

■ Law Revision to Facilitate Urban Renewal

On June 22, the President promulgated a revision of the Urban Renewal Act to expand the scope of urban renewal following major disasters, lowering the ratio of consenting parties necessary for joint-reconstruction agreements requiring majority decision, and adding methods for resolution when agreements cannot be reached and when public land is involved in urban renewal.

The revision provides that for both renewal areas designated by a city government and for areas self-planned as a renewal unit, an agreement ratio of only eight-tenths (of either persons or area) is required for a majority decision to carry out urban renewal by the joint-construction method. Those who do not wish to participate in the joint-construction agreement can be handled through an exchange of rights or can be bought out by the implementing party. If an agreement cannot be reached, cash compensation can be adopted, with the permission of the competent authority, and the matter handled through requisition and sale to the implementing party.

The Ministry of the Interior, which is the competent authority for the Urban Renewal Act, points out that the passage of this legislation will help with the compulsory elimination of obstacles posed by a small number of landlords who do not wish to participate in urban renewal projects and will enable builders to shorten the time needed for reconstruction, lower reconstruction costs, and accelerate the speed of urban renewal, thereby benefiting builders, the general public, and the government alike. Policy Updates

■ Premier Hsieh: Plan for Cross-Strait Cargo Charter Flights

On June 13, Premier Frank Hsieh said that, to pragmatically face the need of the exchange of people and commerce across the Taiwan Strait, the Executive Yuan had charged relevant agencies to work under the principle of “Reconciliation with no retreat; firmness with no confrontation” to carry out the issues of cross-strait cargo charter flights, the sale of Taiwan agricultural products to the mainland, and tourist travel to Taiwan by mainland Chinese, etc.

The Premier made his statement at a Dragon Boat Festival dinner for representatives from Taiwan business associations in the mainland. In the area of cargo charter flights, he noted that the Mainland Affairs Council had been instructed, in cooperation with the Ministry of Transportation and Communications and other relevant agencies, to carry out concrete planning on the negotiating model used for Chinese New Year charter flights through Macao in regard to negotiation details for “two-way non-stop flights operated by both sides.” He also asked the Taipei Airlines Association to help with liaison and arrangements concerning the negotiations, and expressed the hope that the mainland side would reply soon with a positive response so that the facilitation of cargo flights could be realized quickly.

With regard to the sale of Taiwanese agricultural products to the mainland, the Premier also gave instructions to the Mainland Affairs Council to work with the Council of Agriculture (COA) and other agencies to carry out planning work and to organize a professional negotiating team. He also asked the COA to designate the Taiwan External Trade Development Council (TAITRA), which is richly experienced in international marketing, to serve as an integration window, while the various local farmers’ associations coordinate the supply of products and TAITRA helps with sales to mainland China and other export markets.

In the relaxation of travel to Taiwan by mainland Chinese nationals, Premier Hsieh expressed pleasure with the recent announcement by the mainland Chinese authorities that their nationals would be allowed to travel to Taiwan for tourism. He instructed the Mainland Affairs Council to work with the Ministry of Transportation and Communications and other agencies to carry out planning for negotiations as quickly as possible, to organize a negotiating team, and to engage in liaison and arrangements for negotiations through appropriate methods of organizations. He hoped to see a friendly response from the mainland authorities by means of concrete action, he said, so that more mainlanders could enjoy the beautiful experiences of touring Taiwan.

The Premier emphasized that the goal of the government is to realize the peaceful development of ties and improved relations across the Taiwan Strait. The three policy pronouncements described above, he commented, illustrate Taiwan's good intentions and sincerity in promoting peaceful relations across the Strait. He appealed to the mainland authorities to respect Taiwan's system of government and enter into substantive negotiations with Taiwan as soon as possible. For the full text of the Premier's speech, please go online and visit <http://www.ey.gov.tw/web92/news/Wce36f5117c8f7.htm>.

■ Finance Ministry Makes Preliminary Plans for an Alternative Minimum Tax

On June 13, the Ministry of Finance announced a preliminary plan for an "alternative minimum tax" system, which has been worked out in reference to international practices. The new tax will apply to both individuals and profit-seeking enterprises, and is expected to affect about 10,000 taxpayers.

The Ministry points out that the alternative minimum tax is a substitute system, and that those whose liabilities under the general tax system are higher than the alternative minimum tax will not be affected. Only those whose liabilities under the general tax system are lower than the alternative minimum tax will have to pay under the substitute system. For profit-seeking enterprises, the consolidated income tax paid by shareholders can be offset from the alternative minimum tax payment.

On July 8, the Tax Reform Task Force of the Executive Yuan discussed the preliminary plan, which sets the alternative minimum tax rate for individuals at 20%, and the rate for profit-seeking enterprises at 10%. Individuals whose gross income along with tax-exempted income does not reach the NT$8-10 million level will (provisionally) not be subject to the alternative minimum tax. For profit-seeking enterprises, the income base upon which the alternative minimum tax will be paid includes (again, provisionally) income that is exempt from tax under the Statute for Upgrading Industries, Statute for Encouragement of Private Participation in Transportation Construction, and Law for the Encouragement of Private Participation in Infrastructure Projects; income from securities and futures transactions; and tax-exempted income of offshore banking units of financial institutions. For the contents of the plan, please consult <http://www.mof.gov.tw/content.asp?CuItem=24316&baseDSD=5&CtUnit=11> and <http://www.mof.gov.tw/content.asp?CuItem=23864&baseDSD=5&CtUnit=11>.

Deregulation Progress

- CEPD Speeds Up Work on Company Restructuring and Bankruptcy Law

The Council for Economic Planning and Development has completed a study of company restructuring and bankruptcy laws, and has the Executive Yuan to serve together with the Judicial Yuan in bringing to birth a single and unitary Company Restructuring and Bankruptcy Law for Taiwan.

The CEPD indicates that once the Company Restructuring and Bankruptcy Law completes the legislative process, many of the problems involved in the present lengthy and complicated bankruptcy process will be alleviated. The law is being formulated primarily in reference to America's federal bankruptcy law, which puts restructuring and bankruptcy procedures within a single law, with the concerned party deciding at the outset whether to proceed with restructuring or bankruptcy and with numerous provisions for conversion of procedures between the restructuring and bankruptcy systems. The draft law will also ask the courts to carry out a one-time clearing up of a company's liabilities once the clearing procedure is initiated, unless there are special stipulations. For more information on the unitary Corporate Restructuring and Bankruptcy Law, please check this website: http://www.cedi,cepd.gov.tw/research_categories.php?cPath=1.

Industry Updates

- Free Trade Zones (FTZs) Attract Widespread Corporate Interests

The government's promotion of the establishment of free trade zones in Taiwan is drawing widespread attention from the private sector. The Cargo Distribution International Taiwan Ltd., the ET Internet Technology Corp. and the Kaochung Stevedoring Co. have already received permission to operate within Kaohsiung Free Port, and more than 10 other firms are expected to submit applications soon. Obviously, the establishment of FTZs can serve the needs of companies in Taiwan well.

Chairman Wang Woo Hsiung of the Kaochung Stevedoring Co., which provides loading and unloading services for bulk carriers, says that he wants his company to be a Kaohsiung FTZ enterprise primarily because the free trade zone offers convenient warehousing and logistics services including the free flow of commodities, cargo consolidation, rearrangement, packaging, repair, processing, and transshipment, thus facilitating the development of business. Kaohsiung is a fine natural harbor, he explains, with a moderate climate and outstanding port conditions, comprehensive facilities, a vast hinterland, and an abundant supply of cargo, making it supremely suitable for the development of a free trade zone. In the future, Kaochung will cooperate with prominent overseas shippers and internationally known logistics operators in promoting the transshipment business.

Chairman Adam Hung of the Tonglit Logistics Co., which specializes in whole-car logistics and the bale packing of auto parts, reports that his company has five plants within the Port of Taipei. In two short years, they have achieved operating revenues of NT$60 billion and the figure is expected to rise to NT$70 billion this year. Hung expects that the operating environment will become even better once the Taipei Free Trade Zone begins operating, integrating logistics from all over the world and providing even more effective and timely value-added transshipment. Tonglit will submit its application to become a Taipei FTZ enterprise in July so as to gain access to the tax breaks, low operating costs, and other incentives available there, and thereby to generate yet better profits.

Statistics

■ BERI: Taiwan's Investment Environment the 5th in the World

According to the first investment environment risk assessment issued by Business Environment Risk Intelligence (BERI) in 2005, Taiwan shares the fifth place with Norway in the Profit Opportunity Recommendation rating. This means that Taiwan is a low-risk country that is suitable for investment.

Among the 50 countries included in the BERI report, Taiwan ranked behind Switzerland, Singapore, Holland, and Japan. The report puts Taiwan's overall investment environment score at 72, leaving it in the highest 1A rating category. In both score and ranking, Taiwan's position is unchanged from the previous assessment. BERI feels that the mainland Chinese military threat against Taiwan is abating, and that society is in a state of stability. With investors keeping up their confidence in Taiwan, foreign direct investment (FDI) is expected to continue growing. The BERI report forecasts that one year and five years in the future Taiwan's investment environment assessment score will climb to 73 and 74, respectively, putting the island in the 4th and the 5th place globally in those two years.

The report ranked Taiwan the 3rd in Asia, after Singapore (the 2nd worldwide with a score of 78) and Japan the fourth (with a score of 73). Taiwan was far ahead of mainland China and Malaysia (sharing the 19th place with a score of 59), South Korea

(the 21st with a score of 58), and Thailand (the 28th with a score of 49).

BERI's investment risk assessment is compiled according to three major indexes—operating risk, political risk, and remittance and repatriation risk—and 22 sub-indexes. From the viewpoint of multi-national enterprises, what the assessment measures is a country's suitability for investment and the profit that can be earned from investment.

In its most recent report, BERI also pointed out that Taiwan's labor productivity was in the 3rd place globally, a position the island shared with Switzerland after only Singapore in the 1st place and the United States in the 2nd place; and the second in Asia. ■ 謝院長會見美國商會呼籲推動簽署台美FTA

行政院謝院長在會見台北市美國商會代表時強調，與美國簽署自由貿易協定(FTA)有利加強台美之間經貿關係，也有利美國全球戰略布局。但是台美FTA簽署事涉複雜，他希望美國商會能擔任我國與美國自由貿易協定談判推手，以利兩國共同開展國際經濟契機。

美國商會代表一行8人，於6月10日由會長姜森(Tom Johnson)及執行長魏理庭率領，拜會行政院謝院長，並說明該商會出版「2005年台灣白皮書」內容重點。美國商會代表感謝行政院努力解決該商會所提出的各項議題，並期盼未來雙方有更多合作性的安排。謝院長則呼籲美國商會協助推動簽署台美FTA。

謝院長指出，美國商會白皮書提供我方許多政治、經濟及社會政策建議，幫助很大。有關外商所特別關切的人力資源問題，謝院長指出，因應企業全球化營運需要，持續檢討人力資源相關議題一直是行政院的工作重點。在過去的一年裡，行政院相關部會已協調實施多項放寬人員進出措施，包括放寬企業邀請大陸地區人士來台從事商務活動規定、放寬外籍專業人士之大陸地區配偶於入境前尋覓保證人規定、取消對外籍專業人士之大陸地區配偶入境時保管其證照措施、允許大陸地區專業人士來台購車、以及簡化來台大陸地區專業人士配偶

申請重入境程序等。此外，為紓解跨國企業在台營運面臨的人力短缺問題，經濟部已協調各大學開設產業碩士專班。行政院也在去年12月將原即設有之跨部會科技人才會報提升為涵蓋非科技領域的「人才會報」，就我國整體人才的培育以及人力資源開發，分按教育體系、職業訓練及海外延攬等層面研擬策略及行動方案，並經常舉行跨部會的協調及檢討。

謝院長強調，經建會將針對美國商會所提，有關紓解人才短缺，以及加速跨國企業大陸員工之來台申請流程等議題，積極研提對策，儘快召開工作小組會議討論。

根據美國商會新公布「2005年台灣白皮書」內容，美商推崇我行政與立法機關在2004年間達成多項重要進展，因此決定將「2004年台灣白皮書」中之所提20項議題，自「2005年台灣白皮書」中刪除，這些重要進展包括完成修正「著作權法」(確立台灣打擊盜版慎重決心，直接影響台灣自美國「特別301優先觀察名單」上除名)、「藥事法」(保障藥商為藥品申請核可時相關資料機密性)、及「大陸地區人民來台從事商務活動許可辦法」(放寬跨國企業持大陸護照員工入境規定)等。美國商會同時肯定我成立「金融監督管理委員會」為獨立且專業的主管機關、針對「第二波金融改革」提出完整計畫、以及重新檢視公共工程合約條文規定等政策，認為和前幾年相較的確大有進步。

■ 總統公布通過加碼1,100億基金加強金融重建

為強化金融改革，總統於6月22日公布修正「行政院金融重建 (Resolution Trust Corporation, RTC) 基金設置及管理條例」，將在民國99年底前增加新台幣1,100億元的基金運用總額，用以處理問題金融機構。

根據RTC條例修正內容，所增加基金運用總額的20%將作為賠付農、漁會信用部使用，其運用及管理辦法由行政院定之。該條例的修正重點還包括基金銜接機制、非存款債務保障方式以及評價小組設置等。

行政院金融重建基金自90年7月9日公布設置以來，共處理48家經營體質脆弱的問題金融機構，全體金融機構共計打消了逾1.4兆元的壞帳，讓台灣逾期放款比例降至2.76%，並促成14家金融控股公司的成立，成效卓著。

配合RTC條例的修正，立法院同日也通過修正「加值型及非加值型營業稅法」，刪除金融機構自95年起免徵營業稅的規定。未來金融業所繳納的2%營業稅，將會撥入RTC基金，作為RTC財源。查詢RTC條例修正內容請上網：http://gazette.nat.gov.tw/EG_FileManager//egupload/eg011119/ch09/typea/gov80/num11/Eg.htm；查詢「加值型及非加值型營業稅法」修正內容請上網：http://gazette.nat.gov.tw/EG_FileManager//egupload/eg011119/ch09/typea/gov80/num12/Eg.htm。

■ 立法院通過905億元擴大公共建設特別預算

立法院於5月31日依據「擴大公共建設投資特別條例」，三讀通過「94年度中央政府擴大公共建設投資計畫特別預算案」，將在94年度內投資新台幣905億元，推動文化、教育、交通、科技及水資源等多項重要公共建設，加速國家經濟建設與升級轉型。

根據行政院規劃，甫通過的94年預算包括設立頂尖大學及研究中心(100億元)、興建國際藝術及流行音樂中心(14億元)、M台灣計畫(28億元)、推動台鐵捷運化(19億元)、建設第三波高速公路(90億元)、高雄港洲際貨櫃中心(137億元)、鋪設北中南捷運(480億元)、推動污水下水道建設(34億元)及平地水庫海淡廠計畫(6千7百萬元)。

依據「擴大公共建設投資特別條例」，政府將從94年起的5年內，籌措新台幣5,000億元經費，推動文化等重要公共建設。據預估，計畫推動的5年期間，每年平均將增加64,000個就業機會，及每年提高實質GDP達1.0至1.03個百分點。推估5年間，可增加稅收約700億至1,500億元；保守推估25年間，可增加稅收約2,400億元。

■ 總統公布修正「公司法」強化公司治理

為強化公司治理，總統於6月22日公布修正「公司法」部分條文，納入股東提案權、董事監察人提名制度、以及股東通訊投票制度等。修正要點包括：

1. 放寬公司以外之法人亦得為發起人。換言之，公司、法人以其自行研發之專門技術或智慧財產權作價投資或經目的事業主管機關核准者，均得擔任公司之發起人。(修正條文第128條)
2. 因應新金融商品發行，便利公司發行新股，授權公司自行決定設立時及增資後應發行股份數額，不再要求至少應發行股份總數1/4。(修正條文第156條、第278條)
3. 為因應電子科技之進步，節省公司通知事務之成本，放寬公司召開股東會時，有關開會通知及會後股東會議事錄製作及分發，均得依「電子簽章法」規定的電子方式為之。(修正條文第172條、第183條)
4. 參考外國立法例賦予股東提案權，開放單一或數位合計持有已發行股份總數1/100以上股份的股東，得向公司提出一項以300字為限的股東常會議案，該提案股東並應出席股東常會參與所提議案討論。(修正條文第172條之1)

「公司法」主管機關經濟部表示，這次「公司法」修正內容與世界潮流接軌，增加股東權限運作空間，激發股東自決精神，也加強對股東的保護，應可進一步健全公司經營階層體質，塑造健康的公司治理文化，提升企業全球競爭力，對台灣經濟發展及企業經營意義重大。查詢「公司法」修正內容請上網：http://gazette.nat.gov.tw/EG_FileManager//eguploadpub/eg011119/ch09/typea/gov80/num13/Eg.htm。

■ 總統公布修正「都市更新條例」促進都市更新

總統於6月22日公布修正「都市更新條例」部分條文，重點包括放寬重大災害發生後需辦理都市更新範圍，降低以多數決方式辦理協議合建同意比例，以及新增協議不成時處理及公有土地參與都市更新方式，以加速都市更新。

依新修訂條文，無論市政府劃定的更新地區或自行劃定的更新單元，只要達人數或面積同意比例8/10，即可以多數決之協議合建方式實施都市更新。不願參加合建協議者，得以權利轉換方式實施，或者由實施者協議價購，但若協議不成，可經由主管機關同意，採取現金補償，並用徵收方式處理，以便讓售或以專案讓售的方式售予實施者。

「都市更新條例」主管機關內政部指出，此法令通過後，將有助強制排除少數不願參與都市更新的地主，建商可縮短重建時程，降低成本，加速都市更新，為建商、民眾及政府創

造三贏局面。查詢修正內容請上網：

■ 謝院長：務實規劃兩岸貨運包機協商等事宜

行政院謝院長於6月13日表示，行政院已秉持「和解不退縮，堅定不對立」的原則，責成相關單位針對兩岸貨運包機、台灣農產品銷售大陸、以及大陸人民來台觀光等三項議題提出具體作法，以務實面對兩岸人民及商務交流需求。

謝院長是在出席「大陸台商協會端節聯誼餐會」時，作以上表示。謝院長指出，在兩岸貨運包機方面，已指示陸委會會同交通部等相關機關，參照澳門春節包機協商模式，就「雙向、對飛、不中停」的貨運包機所涉協商事宜進行具體規劃，並委請台北市航空運輸商業同業公會協助連繫及安排雙方進行協商的有關事宜，希望大陸方面能夠儘快作出具體的回應，讓貨運便捷化很快實現。

在台灣農產品銷售大陸方面，謝院長已指示陸委會會同農委會等相關機關進行規劃，並組成專業談判團隊，並請農委會指定有豐富國際行銷經驗的中華民國對外貿易發展協會作為整合的窗口，並與農會進行分工合作，由各

地農會負責協調產品供應，並由外貿協會協助輸銷包括大陸市場在內的外銷市場。

在開放大陸人民來台觀光方面，謝院長表示樂見中共當局不久前宣布將於近期內開放大陸人民來台觀光，已指示陸委會會同交通部及有關機關儘速完成協商規劃及組成協商團隊，並透過適當方式或組織進行連繫及安排協商事宜。希望大陸有關當局能以實際行動，作出善意回應，以讓更多的大陸人民能擁有來台觀光旅遊的美好體驗。

謝院長強調，追求兩岸和平發展，改善兩岸關係，是政府持續努力的目標。上述三項政策宣示，表示台灣推動兩岸和平往來的善意與誠意，呼籲中共當局能尊重我政府的體制，儘速與我方展開實質協商。查詢謝院長演講全文請上網：<http://www.ey.gov.tw/web92/news/Wce36f5117c8f7.htm>。

■ 財政部公布最低稅負制初步規劃方向

為落實稅制改革，財政部在參酌國際實施經驗之後，於6月13日公布最低稅負制初步規劃，範圍將包括個人及營利事業，估計將有1萬人左右受到影響。

財政部指出，規劃中的最低稅負制將採行替代式，如果一般稅制繳納的所得稅稅額已經比最低稅負為高，將不受最低稅負制的影響，仍然按一般所得稅稅額繳稅，只有一般所得稅稅額比最低稅額為低的人，才需要按最低稅負

繳稅。營利事業階段繳納的最低稅負可以扣抵股東個人綜合所得稅。

本案經7月8日行政院稅改小組討論後，初步擬定最低稅負之稅率在個人方面為20%，營利事業為10%。在個人部分，暫定所得加計免稅所得後未達800~1,000萬元之個人，排除繳納最低稅負。營利事業最低稅負稅基則暫定包括「促進產業升級條例」、「獎勵民間參與交通建設條例」、及「促進民間參與公共建設法」等免稅所得；證券交易、期貨交易所得及國際金融業務分行之免稅所得。查詢財政部規劃內容請上網：<http://www.mof.gov.tw/content.asp?CuItem=24316&baseDSD=5&CtUnit=11> 及 <http://www.mof.gov.tw/content.asp?CuItem=23864&baseDSD=5&CtUnit=11>。

■ 經建會加速推動制定「公司重整破產法」

為加速公司破產與重整處理程序，經建會完成「公司重整與破產單一法典之研究」，並請行政院協調司法院共同催生制定「公司重整破產法」。

經建會表示，「公司重整破產法」完成立法之後，將可以解決現行破產與重整程序冗長及重複等問題。研擬中的「公司重整破產法」主要參照美國聯邦破產法體例，將公司重整與破產程序規範在同一部法典中，由聲請人於聲請

之初，自行選擇以重整或破產開始進行相關程序，並在重整與破產二套制度間增設諸多程序轉換規定，要求法院一旦開啟公司債務清理程序後，除有特別規定，原則上應在此一程序中將債務人公司債權債務關係作一次性處理。查詢「公司重整與破產單一法典」研究請上網：http://www.cedi.cepd.gov.tw/research_categories.php?cPath=1。

■ 自由貿易港區設置獲企業廣泛重視

政府推動設置自由貿易港區政策已引起企業廣泛重視。資料顯示，已有匯展國際物流股份有限公司、遠森科技公司及高群裝卸公司等三家企业取得在高雄港自由貿易港區的營運許可，並有包括東立物流公司等在內的10多家企業在近期內提出申籌，顯示自由貿易港區設置符合企業實際需求。

以提供散裝雜貨船裝卸服務的高群裝卸公司王武雄董事長表示，該公司申設成為高雄港自由貿易港區事業，主要著眼於港區可以提供商品自由流通、組裝、重整、包裝、修配、加工、轉口、轉運等更便捷的倉儲物流服務，均有利於業務拓展。高雄港為一天然良港，氣候溫和，港口條件優越，港埠設施完善，腹地廣大，進出貨量豐足，極適合作為自由貿易港區。未來高群將與國外大航商及國際知名物流

業者合作，致力於轉口業務推展。

專事國內外成車物流及汽車零組件捆包服務的東立物流洪辰冬董事長則表示，該公司在台北港內設有5座廠房，營運短短2年以來，年營運額已經高達新台幣600億元，2005年將上看700億元。由於看好台北港自由貿易港區正式營運後，會提供更優質營運環境，提供整合來自世界各地物料，進行更有效即時加值轉運，該公司預期在7月申設成為港區事業，以儘快享有稅負等優惠，降低營運成本，創造更高利潤。

■ BERI評估我投資環境全球第5

根據商業環境風險評估公司公布2005年第一次「投資環境風險評估報告」指出，我國投資環境評比，與挪威同列全球第5，屬於低風險、適合進行投資的國家。

依據BERI報告，接受評比的全球50個主要國家中，我國排名僅次於瑞士、新加坡、荷蘭、日本，分數與排名均和前次公布內容相同。整體投資環境評比總分72分，持續被列為最高的1A等級。BERI認為我國受中國大陸的軍事威脅正在減弱中，社會呈現穩定狀態。在投資人對台灣仍具信心的情況下，外人直接投資(FDI)預料未來仍將持續成長，預測1年及5年後，我

國投資環境評將分別上升至73分及74分，排名為全球第4名及第5名。

在亞洲排名方面，我國仍維持第3名，僅次於新加坡（第2名，78分）及日本（第4名，73分），並大幅領先中國大陸和馬來西亞（同為第19名，59分）、南韓（第21名，58分）、泰國（第28名，49分）等亞洲各國。

BERI之「投資環境風險評估報告」，係針對各國營運風險指標、政治風險指標及匯兌風險指標等3大指標共22項副指標作為評估投資環境優劣的依據。換言之，即以跨國企業的角度，評估於各國從事投資及從中獲利的優劣程度。

此外，BERI於本次報告中同時指出，我國勞動力評比與瑞士同列全球第3名，亞洲第2名，僅次於新加坡（第1名）與美國（第2名）。查詢相關資訊請上網：http://twbusiness.nat.gov.tw/2005beri_1.doc。
