

Taiwan's Mobile Payment Development

According to the report of the Institute for Information Industry(III), Taiwan's mobile payment penetration rate has increased to 72.2% in 2021.

- ✓ Mobile Payment Penetration Rate : the proportion of mobile payment users in smart phone users in current year
- ✓ Mobile Payment Definition : Making a deal with merchants through scanning QR code by smartphones or touching the reader with smartphones which have Near Field Communication (NFC) function

The Achievement of Mobile Payment Policy

Regular Expenses

- more than 10,000 convenience stores, retailers, and restaurants and more than 10,555 small-scale merchants

Public Services

- gasoline stations, medical centers, taxes, utility bills, etc.

Transports & tourism

- THSR, KRT, TMRT, taxis and freeway service areas
- National Forest Recreation Areas, National Palace Museum, nationwide museums and cultural parks, etc.

Friendly Environment

- strengthening infrastructure, incl. cyber security, mobile internet, etc.
- adjusting financial regulation
- establishing an e-payment cross-institution platform

Big events

- offering consumers opportunities to experience mobile payment via Lantern Festival, Agriculture Expo, etc.